ON DUTY Allegations*Assault

Allegation that a member of a police force was responsible for a criminal attack on another person as defined by the common law crime of assault. There must be an inference of criminal intent and not merely the use of force to effect a police duty.

Excessive Force

An allegation that a member of a police force used excessive force to effect an arrest or at any other time during the course of their duty and there is no inference of criminality.

Incivility

Allegation that member of a police force was uncivil in manner of speech, language or demeanour – less than that which may construe an allegation of the crime of Breach of the Peace.

Neglect of Duty

Allegation that a member of a police force failed or neglected to perform a duty set out in common / statute law or under Force procedures.

Irregularity in Procedure

Allegation that a member of a police force performed a duty in a manner not in accordance with standard / accepted practice or set out in force policy / standing orders / standard operating procedures. Therefore if an officer did something differently it would fall into this category, while if the officer had not done it at all, it would fall into Neglect of Duty.

Traffic Irregularity / Offence

Allegation that a member of a police force contravened road traffic legislation, force procedures or codes of practice relating to police vehicles and would include an officer driving or being in charge of a motor vehicle.

Oppressive Conduct / Harassment

Allegation that a member of a police force acted in a manner that was oppressive or pursued a course of conduct that was deemed to be harassment towards a member of the public but would not include allegation encompassed by Neglect of Duty or Irregularity in Procedure

Unlawful / Unnecessary Arrest or Detention

Allegation that a member of a police force effected / assisted in an arrest that was not provided for in law or that was unnecessary in all the prevailing circumstances

Discriminatory Behaviour

Allegation that a member of a police force engaged in a course of action interpreted as discriminatory towards an individual or group.

Corrupt Practice

Allegation that a member of a police force abused his/her role or position for personal gain or gain for others.

Other (criminal)

Allegation that a member of a police force committed any other crime known to the Law of Scotland, common law or statute, but not contained under the other headings.
